

Leo and Bree both want the same ball, this makes Leo upset.

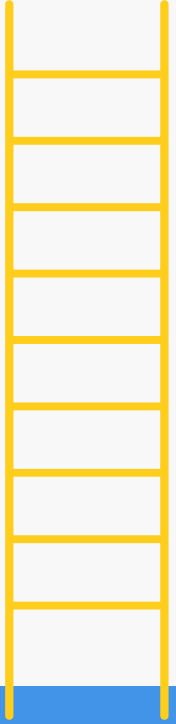

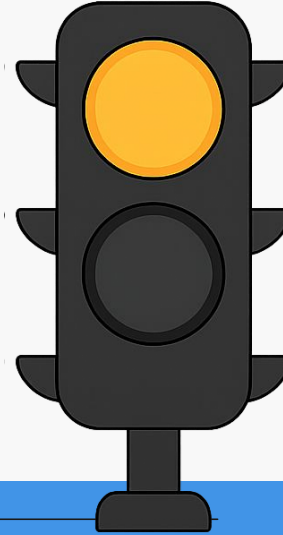

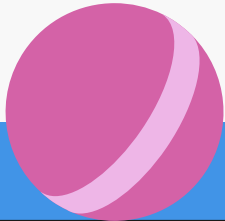

Leo pauses so the body can cool down

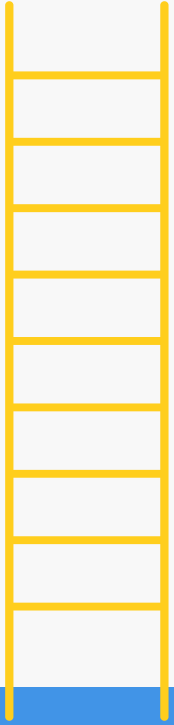

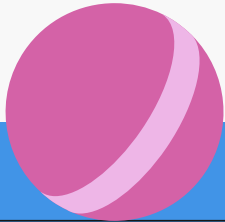

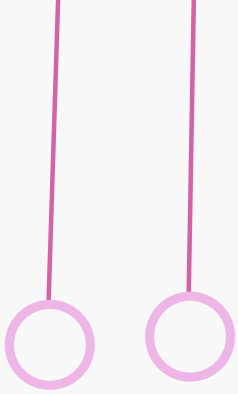

Leo focuses on his breath and tries to feel Calm

Breathe In...
Breathe Out...

I feel Calm
now!

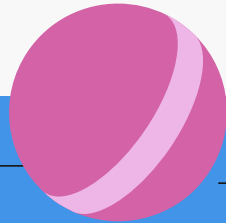

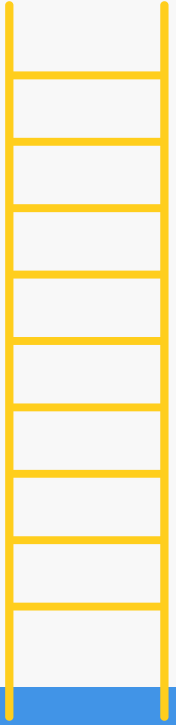

Bree listens to Leo

What do you want to do?

That's Okay!

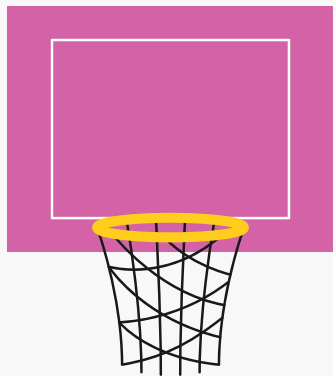

Leo and Bree Plan a Solution

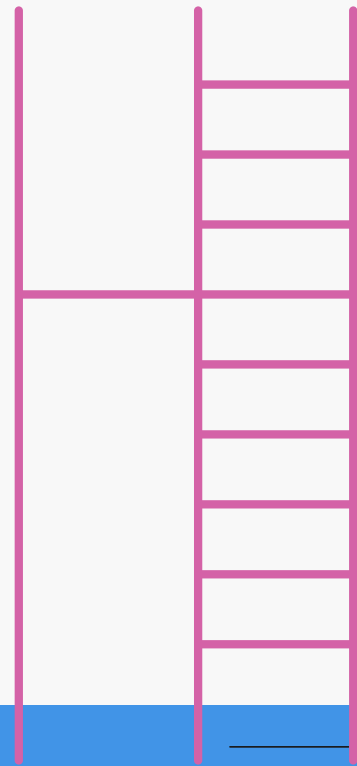

Bree plays for her 10 minutes

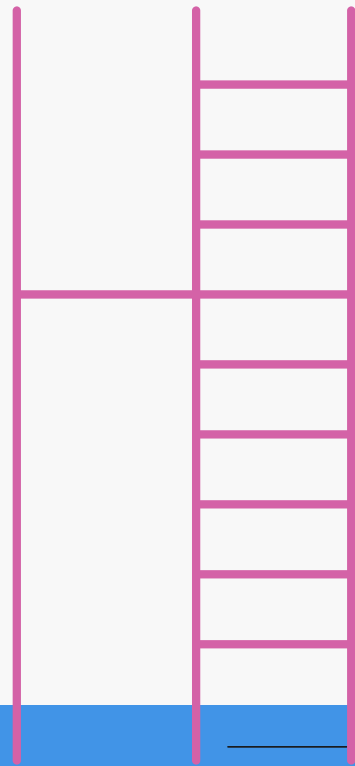

Leo and Bree switch turns

The timer is up
now it's my turn

THE END

The Clock, and Traffic light where generated by GPT-5 and I used this to remove background

Emotional Sprite Sheet of Character were made by uploaded the pdf images into GPT and asked to make emotional sprite sheets. I can provide full logs upon request but I had to fight with it to get what I wanted over and over again so they would be very long. OpenAI. As I used the generation directly trying to replicate someone else's work the bias would be the same as the person who made the work I gave ai. For emotions there would be a eurocentric cultural bias towards how westerners display emotion.
